

RECREATIONAL SERVICES

Access Northern California

1427 Grant St.
Berkeley, CA 94703
Phone: (510) 524-2026
E-mail: info@accessnca.com
Web site: www.accessnca.com/anc/index.php

Access Northern California (ANC) is a non-profit organization dedicated to facilitating greater access to travel and recreational opportunities in Northern California for people with physical disabilities. ANC provides both informational and educational services.

City of Novato Teen Center

950 7th Street
Novato, CA 94945
Phone: (415) 209-6210
Fax: (415) 899-8219
E-mail: teens@ci.novato.ca.us
Web site: www.ci.novato.ca.us/prcs/teencenter.cfm

City of Novato Teen Center is a recreational facility offering a wide variety of activities for young people in grades 6 – 12, which include drop-in activities, classes, workshops and trips. All teens must show a valid Student ID card to be admitted to the Center. Please see the web site for a list of events, programs, and classes.

Marin YMCA

1500 Los Gamos Drive
San Rafael, CA 94903
Phone: (415) 492-9622
Fax: (415) 492-9703
Web site: www.ymcasf.org/Marin

The Marin YMCA operates a combined Youth and Teen Center (ages 7+) where participants are supervised in activities including board games, arts & crafts, volunteer services, computer activities, and special events. Financial assistance is available for those who qualify.

MIYO (Marin Interfaith Youth Outreach)

1299 Fourth St., Suite 203

San Rafael, CA 94901

Phone: (415) 453-8645

Fax: (415) 453-1499

E-mail: miyoteens@aol.com

Web site: www.miyoteens.org

MIYO provides youth development programs for Marin County youth on the campus of Tamalpais High School in Mill Valley, through the Tamalpais Beacon Center Project, at the MYC (Marin Youth Center) in San Rafael, and in other Marin County communities through partnerships with local youth serving agencies. MIYO's five core program areas are education, career development, arts and recreation, leadership, and health. Personal and spiritual growth programs provide youth with the opportunity to learn about themselves through learning about others. Their business education program provides youth with business and management skills, career exploration, and job readiness training.