Golden Gate Transit (GGT) provides regional fixed-route bus service in San Francisco and Marin and Sonoma counties. All GGT bus service is operated with lift-equipped buses with a "kneeling feature" to make boarding easier. Any passenger may request to use the lift or kneeling feature on the bus. Not all GGT bus stops are accessible to wheelchairs. Persons requiring special assistance are encouraged to arrange for a companion to ride with them.

All Golden Gate Ferry vessels are accessible to passengers using wheelchairs and all have accessible restrooms.

Intercounty paratransit service is operated by WhistleStop Wheels between Marin, Contra Costa, San Francisco and Sonoma counties within three-quarters of a mile of GGT's basic bus routes. Fares are charged and reservations are required. (See "Whistlestop Wheels" below.)
